FIRST NOTICE OF TECHNICAL CONFERENCE ON
RTO/ISO RESPONSIVENESS

(November 13, 2009)

In Order Nos. 719 and 719-A, the Commission established reforms to improve the operation of organized wholesale electric power markets and amended its regulations under the Federal Power Act in the areas of: (1) demand response; (2) long-term power contracting; (3) market monitoring policies; and (4) the responsiveness of regional transmission organizations (RTOs) and independent system operators (ISOs) to their customers and other stakeholders.¹ The RTOs and ISOs filed in compliance with Order Nos. 719 and 719-A in the above-referenced proceedings.

The staff of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission will hold a technical conference in the near future to provide a forum for interested participants to discuss the fourth topic identified above – the responsiveness of RTOs and ISOs to their customers and other stakeholders. The technical conference will be held in the Commission Meeting Room at the Commission’s Washington, D.C. headquarters, 888 First Street, NE
